Evan Garcia is a Partner and Trial Attorney at the Simon Law Group. Evan heads our nationwide Trucking Litigation and commonly pro hac in for significant cases. He focuses on all types of catastrophic injury cases trying numerous to multi-million-dollar verdicts. Evan also manages our Texas practice since its inception in 2020. Evan is a proud member of JusticeHQ, a member-only plaintiff's organization of high caliber attorneys, and former Vice Chairman of its Board of Directors. He is admitted to practice in both California and Texas.

Prior to joining the Justice Team his practice primarily involved tax litigation for Fortune 1000 companies. As a plaintiff's attorney, Evan has been instrumental in recovering over $60 million in verdicts and settlements, including recent awards for $32.5M, $11M and $6M respectively. Recent verdicts include a $3.09M in Los Angeles County for a cervical disc replacement and another $1.37M in Los Angeles county for a lumbar decompression surgery.

Evan has a Finance and Real Estate degree from the University of Pacific and played Division I water polo for the Tigers. He went on to earn his law degree from Thomas Jefferson School of Law, along with several other Simon Law Group attorneys. During law school, he was an active member of the Alternative Dispute Resolution team and an Executive Board member of the Moot Court team. Evan competed in the distinguished Duberstein Bankruptcy Moot Court Competition twice, and was an American College of Bankruptcy Distinguished Law Student 9th circuit nominee. He also clerked for the Honorable Chief Judge Marvin Isgur of the Southern District of Texas and the Ft. Bend County District Attorney's office.

In his free time, Evan interests range from sports, to chess, to coaching his kid's sport teams. Be sure to ask him what pairs better with Shiner Bock, brisket or short ribs (preferably on the golf course.) But above all else, he enjoys spending time with his wife, Rhianna, and young sons Noah and Benson and his little girl Camren Marie.
