Malorie Peacock is a partner at Cowen Rodriguez Peacock, a personal injury firm in Texas which handles trucking, commercial motor vehicle, and catastrophic injury across the country. She focuses her practice on 18-wheeler and commercial vehicle wrecks.

Her trial experience includes venues throughout the United States and multiple 7-figure verdicts. Last year, she received an 8-figure verdict for a client in a product liability case. Earlier this year she also got another 7-figure verdict in a trucking case in Texas. Malorie was the recipient of the Reich Chandler Outstanding Advocate award from the Texas Trial Lawyers' Association and serves as a leadership co-chair in multiple organizations, including for the Women's Caucus of the Academy of Truck Accident Attorneys.

Malorie speaks about litigating trucking and commercial vehicle cases nationwide. You can also listen to her share her litigation, trial experience, and real-life attorney experiences as a regular guest on Trial Lawyer Nation, an award-winning podcast.
