Michael Leizerman is a partner at The Law Firm for Truck Safety, which handles truck accident litigation across the United States. He is the co-founder of the Academy of Truck Accident Attorneys (ATAA). He is one of the few lawyers in the Nation who exclusively represents victims of catastrophic truck crashes.

Michael was the first Chair of AAJ's Trucking Litigation Group. He and his wife and law partner, Rena, wrote the multi-volume treatise Litigating Truck Accident Cases. Together, they also spearheaded efforts in partnership with the NBTA and the ATAA to obtain the first and only American Bar Association-accredited board certification in truck accident law in the country.

Michael has received numerous awards for his outstanding work in truck crash litigation including NBTA's distinguished President's Award. He has also been selected to provide expert testimony before Congress' Motor Carrier Safety Advisory Committee (MCSAC).

Michael has taken 16 truck and bus cases to trial, which appears to be more than any other trucking plaintiff lawyer in the US. He is board-certified in truck accident law by the NBTA. He has received record-breaking truck accident settlements and verdicts across the country, including multiple verdicts with punitive damages. He and his firm have received more than 10 settlements and verdicts of $10 million or greater.

Michael is also the author of the Trial Guides book The Zen Lawyer: Winning with Mindfulness, published in 2018.
