Mr. White's primary focus is Texas and New Mexico, with a special emphasis on catastrophic injuries and wrongful deaths in trucking / work vehicles and oilfield/pipeline cases. He authored the New Mexico Truck Crash Law Overview for the AAJ Interstate Trucking Litigation Group and has published trucking related articles in AIEG. In addition, with the ability to speak Spanish, at the request of a Mexican legal scholar, White contributed a chapter to a Latin American legal treatise on expert witnesses.

In 2016, White and his law partner obtained the largest trucking wrongful death verdict in the country at more than $37 million for a single death. In 2017, Mr. White obtained a $7 million trucking verdict in New Mexico on a $0 offer case. He resolved the case against a previous defendant for a confidential settlement that was significantly in excess of the later verdict. In 2023, White and his law partner tried 2 low impact tractor trailer / work vehicle crashes to a $4.9M+ verdict and $7M+ verdict.

Mr. White has and continues to represent victims of oilfield-related deaths, including crashes involving oil field trucks and injuries and deaths arising from unsafe working conditions in oil field and gas pipeline facilities and locations. He has represented clients in cases against most of the large oil and gas producers and service companies.
